

3-31-2012

The News-Herald

Leaders welcome new administrator

The Painesville Township trustees have welcomed W. David Landeg as the township's new Administrator. Landeg is a good fit for the township's future and brings a wealth of business experience with a background in engineering and dealing with the public, the township said in making the announcement.

Landeg resides in Leroy Township with his wife Juanita. They have two grown children who reside in the area.